

HAWAR- MY JOURNEY TO GENOCIDE

A FILM BY DÜZEN TEKKAL

JOIN US FOR A FILM SCREENING AND DISCUSSION WITH THE
RENOWNED FILMMAKER

This event is free and open to the public.

For further information about this event, contact: Pinar Ulumaskan at pinaru@uw.edu or Michael Sims at simsmb@uw.edu

WHEN: MONDAY, JAN 30 2017 | 7-9 p.m.

WHERE: KANE HALL 120

In August 2014, ISIS swarmed over the Iraqi Sinjar region giving the Yazidis the choice to convert or die – leaving 5,000 dead, half a million displaced and more than 3,000 girls and women forced into sexual enslavement. “Hawar” is the story of Düzen Tekkal’s journey back to her Yazidi homeland and her arrival to an ISIS bloodbath. She is an award-winning German journalist and human rights activist of Kurdish-Yazidi origin.

To request disability accommodation contact the Disability Services Office at least ten days in advance at:
(206) 543-6450/V, (206) 543-6452/TTY, (206) 685-7264 (FAX), or dso@u.washington.edu.

The event is sponsored by the following at the University of Washington: The Henry M. Jackson School of International Studies, the Herbert J. Ellison Professorship, the College of Arts & Sciences, the Center for West European Studies, the Center for Global Studies, the Simpson Center for the Humanities, the Middle East Center, the Stroum Center for Jewish Studies, the Center for Human Rights, the Center for Communication, Difference & Equity, the Near and Middle Eastern PhD Program, the Law, Societies & Justice Program, the Comparative History of Ideas Program, the William H. Gates Public Law Program, the School of Social Work Student Advisory Council, the Department of Near Eastern Languages and Civilizations, the Department of Sociology, the Department of Communications and the Department of Political Science. The Middle East Center's sponsorship of this event does not imply that the Center endorses the content of the event.