

National Association of Women Judges (NAWJ) Washington State Association for Justice (WSAJ)

$500 Scholarship – Two Available

NAWJ, through its Access to Justice Scholarship Program, and WSAJ are each providing a $500 scholarship. Two deserving law students who have demonstrated a sustained commitment to diversity and equality in the system of justice will be selected.

Scholarship recipients must be an enrolled second- or third-year law student in good academic standing who has demonstrated a sustained and passionate commitment to the achievement of equality of opportunity and access in the system of justice.

To apply, a student must:

1. Complete and submit the scholarship application.
2. Write and submit a 500-word personal statement about:
  - How the applicant will use the scholarship to enhance equality and equal access to justice
  - Their experience in ensuring equality and access to justice; and
  - Why they should be selected.
3. A current resume.

Application due no later than Wednesday, October 18th 2017.

Submit completed applications electronically to:

Kelley Amburgey-Richardson
Washington State Supreme Court Gender & Justice Commission
kelley.amburgey-richardson@courts.wa.gov
Phone: 360.704.4031

Criteria for selection will include the applicant's experience in addressing gender equity issues (e.g., equal access to justice and domestic violence advocacy), and their plan for use of the funds. Applicants will be notified by October 25, 2017.

A formal presentation is scheduled to occur at the Judicial Officer and Law Student Reception on November 1, 2017 at the University of Washington School of Law.